Trading organizations of the Belorussian SSR completed 97 percent of the first-quarter plan for retail commodity turnover, including Main Administration of Local Markets, Belorussian SSR, 95 percent, and Belorussian Cooperatives' Union, 100.1 percent.

The lowering of State retail prices on consumers' goods in the first quarter 1949 was followed by a considerable increase in commodity turnover. In March 1949, retail commodity turnover by all trading organizations of the Belorussian SSR had increased 23 percent over February 1949.

In March 1949 the Belorussian Union of Cooperatives had increased commodity turnover 30 percent over February 1949. The lowering of State retail prices also caused a considerable increase in kolkhoz trade and lowering of market prices. During the first quarter 1949, kolkhoz markets sold more than during the first quarter of 1948: grain 3.5 times, flour 4.5 times, potatoes - more than double, and vegetables, meat, lard, milk, and butter, 1.5 times. As compared with March 1948 prices, kolkhoz market prices in March 1949 dropped as follows: beef, 34 percent; potatoes, 42 percent; onions, 67 percent; creamery butter, 28 percent; and eggs, 23 percent.
